Talking It Over

1936
AND
1949

1936 and 1949.

The similarity between these two years in the coin machine industry is startling.

Back in 1936 many a coin machine man stated that pin games were finished. Then along came the bumper type games and this business was revived, and has continued forth on this revolutionary change to this day.

At the same time in 1936 the modern juke boxes were just beginning to throw their weight around. That year the few music manufacturers in the business started to push hard for sales.

So, while the pinball field was slackening off, the music field was starting to grow.

Once again, during this past 1949 convention, certain coinmen talked pessimistically of pinballs.

But, there's no doubt that the engineers who guide the destinies of the pinball manufacturers, are sure to bring the field something entirely new and better. Signs of this were apparent in the games shown at this past convention.

At the same time, a new type music was also coming into being. Video. And just as in '36 there weren't too many manufacturers as yet pushing hard in this field. All seemed to be taking it just a bit easy and were conservative in their approach. But, the new type music was there—in conjunction with the tried and true juke box.

While other fields were going ahead in 1936 as they are in 1949, it was these two divisions of the field, pinball and music, which seemed to get the major share of comment.

This past convention saw a great demand for shuffleboard. Yet the comment continued in the pinball and music fields. Somehow ops are always concerned with these two divisions of the cointrade.

Therefore, the startling similarity between 1936 and 1949, and the fact that both of these years brought new and entirely different equipment to the field.

Once again it remains with the coinmen to have faith in the manufacturers in this industry. Faith in the fact that they will produce what is needed for this field to go ahead—further—faster—better than ever before.

The manufacturers today have the most talented inventors and engineers in the nation in their employ. This past show opened a wide vista of what is needed by the operators for them. Their inventors and engineers were present. They, too, now realize what this field wants and needs.

The fact that operators are seeking more novel, more unique, as well as lower priced products, did not escape their attention. They are now hard at work to bring the field what is most necessary.

The machines which the amusement, music and vending machine manufacturers showed at this past convention were the greatest ever yet seen.

These machines have most definitely given this industry a lift up—which will result in one of the best operating years of all time.

That's a prediction. And 1936-1949 will prove similar. They will be great, new, landmarks for one and all to remember.

COINBIZ ON WAY UP

Music, Amusement and Vendor Ops See Better Year Ahead. Video, Shuffleboard, New Games, New Phonos and Vendors Brighten Coinpicture.

One outstanding and important result of this past convention was the fact that all seemed to have once again buckled down to working. Clucking has stopped. The pessimists seem to have fallen by the wayside, and in larger numbers than ever before. The optimists reign once again and, it now seems, will continue to lead for rest of the year.

Many were pleasantly surprised, in talking over general conditions with automatic music operators, that these ops weren't complaining "like they did some months back." It now seems that the majority of the music ops have cleared themselves of indebtedness and are going ahead with routes cut to a more efficient working area. The majority have also arranged for front money guarantees, as well as for service fees and better percentage commission arrangements.

All this has brought greater optimism to the music machine field. Now many of the music ops look forward to one of their better years. They also state that the collections did drop to some extent, the fact that the majority do not have the "heavy indebtedness" to meet, has made whatever is being collected assured better profits.

In short, with depreciation still to be taken in a great many cases, and with the fact that they no longer owe finance companies or banks huge amounts of monies for new equipment, they are now in a better position than ever before to assure themselves continued profitable operation.

At this past show music ops sought new equipment. This greatly pleased the juke box manufacturers who were present.

Some of the new video ideas which were presented caught on with many music ops. Tests are going ahead. The result will be, these men claim, that the music machine op will be in the best position of his career for the balance of 1949.

Nor did this optimism stop with the automatic music field. It also was noted in the amusement and vending machine fields.

It was surprising to many to learn that ops had entered into the vendor field who had never before been in it.

It was just as surprising to find distribs, jobbers and ops in the amusement field who had formerly confined themselves to specializing in music or vendors.

In short, widely varied operating seems to have become the rule for the average operator.

The great interest shown in the coin and non-coin operated video units, whether combo or individual, during this past convention, also surprised many in the field.

Ops in cities where video is just coming into being were extremely interested in these units. Advance tests, conducted by the more aggressive operators, proved that the TV units were extremely beneficial in obtaining good collections, as well as in allowing the average operator to arrange for a better commission basis with his locations.

This latter fact proved of most outstanding interest to many who are investigating the possibility of coin operated video.

Of course, the amusement machines field maintained its lead. Shuffleboards abounded everywhere thruout the convention floor. Preference for one type or another matched the demand.

Some ops believed themselves capable of producing their own "beds" for the shuffleboards and were ordering just the playing board itself. This, as manufacturers of the shuffleboards pointed out, was an error.

Their experience proved, they reported, that the shuffleboards built by the leading factories as a single unit were the best which the ops could buy and remain assured that they would receive many years of service from them.

Suffice it to state that shuffleboards have taken a very great amount of the amusement game operators' interest.

And also entering into the shuffleboard field were ops from the music and vending machine divisions of the industry. All seem to be interested in varied routes and, therefore, are assuring themselves greater profits.

The operators who have already placed shuffleboards were the most enthusiastic. They reported that these have actually started a new era for the coin operated amusement machine field.

The new free play pinballs were the most outstanding, most interesting and most captivating ever yet presented. Operator after operator had only praise for the fine mechanical construction and player appeal which the leading pinball manufacturers had built into their newest numbers.

All claimed that the free play pinball was destined to keep on ahead of the field. And, all had faith in the manufacturers presenting more unique and even better games as they continued along to match whatever else would appear in the amusement machine business.

Stepping heavily into the amusement field were the great one-balls being presented as well as the grand new consoles and bells. These machines are, without any shadow of a doubt, the greatest this field has ever known in all its history.

The firms presenting these games grabbed plenty of attention at the show, and it was noted that operator after operator remained after the convention to call on these factories and arrange for shipments.

This revived interest was inspiring to all in the field. It meant that better income was certain to ensue and that this would guarantee all in the business a new and better sales market for the balance of the year.

The new phonographs, new vending machines, new amusement games, in fact, everything that was presented, points to a definite lift upwards for the entire industry.

The men are now in accord that the field is on its way up. They foresee one of the best operating years in 1949.

It was noticeable that many, many selling factors in the field have entered into extensive operating, and that the operations which are now in force thruout the nation, as well as the new operations which are gradually coming into being, will lead to the brightest year the trade has known.

Record Reviews

"While The Angelus Was Ringing" (2:50)

"Kiss Me Good-Night" (2:33)

ANNE SHELTON
(London 375)

● Plug tune music ops are bound to be hearing plenty of in the very near future is this ditty titled "While The Angelus Was Ringing." It's an unusual type of tune, one with abounding romantic appeal. Soft, sentimental tones of lyrical perfection are offered throughout the dinking. Anne Shelton's rendition of this beautiful song is effective, and should stir up a bit of attention. The flip, "Kiss Me Good-Night" is an adaptation of this widely known standard, and should be familiar to many music operators. Vocal support by the Wardour Singers, and the orchestral charm of the Roy Robertson crew, offer their best on the pair to add immensely to the possible wax incentive shown.

"The Streets Of Laredo" (2:27)

"Flower Of Dawn" (2:59)

REGGIE GOFF
(London 383)

● Some wax that music ops can use as filler material is this bit offered by piper Reggie Goff. Titled, "The Streets of Laredo" and "Flower of Dawn," Reggie displays his deep, heavy tones in fair fashion throughout. While the tunes showcase Reggie's pipes to best advantage, he nevertheless turns in an able performance. Top deck, a melancholy piece, is done up in medium slow fashion, with adequate lyrics playing about the title. The flip is a romantic theme, with a light beguine tempo seeping thru the wax. Ork backing on the pair by the Cyril Stapleton gang is rendered in grade A fashion, and hypo's the wax immensely. Ops who have the room in their machines might listen in here.

"A Pink Parasol" (3:00)

"Pretty Sue" (2:39)

THE KEYNOTES
(London 385)

● First rate vocal harmony, wrapped about an equally first rate pair of tunes, makes this platter by The Keynotes one to be watched. Ditty we're ravin' about is the top deck, titled "A Pink Parasol." It's slow, smooth stuff, replete with affectionate, sentimental lyrics that should meet with wide approval. Vocal work of the combo on this side is nothing but tops. The tune is one that makes you stop and listen, and then come back for more. Song should have wide appeal, especially so with the adult set of juke box fans. On the flip with a cute girl song, the group offer "Pretty Sue" to bounce back with another great hunk of wax. Light, flowery lyrics spatter throughout, with the combo purring soft and smooth throughout. Both sides of this platter rate ops' listening time—and possibly more.

DISK OF THE WEEK

"So In Love" (3:07)

"Always True To You In My Fashion" (3:08)

DINAH SHORE
(Columbia 38399)

DINAH SHORE

● We haven't heard the likes of this in a long, long time! Sure to find its way into a top spot on juke boxes throughout the land is this latest offering by chirp Dinah Shore. Dinah's vocal intonation on this pair is nothing less than sensational. Both tunes, from the hit musical production "Kiss Me Kate" by Cole Porter, are definitely two of the best tunes of the season. There are no A or B sides to this platter—both shape up as smash coin cullers for music ops. Dinah's spooning of the smart, infectious lyrics on "So In Love" ably points to the gal's versatile vocal style. Beguine tempo of the tune, with Dinah purring the wordage in hush-hush manner that scores, makes this tune a winner. It's a socko version that should have kids from six to sixty playing this piece night and day. Ditty is one that will also garner attention from the dance crowd, who are sure to call for this bit loud and long. On the other end with "Always True To You In My Fashion," Dinah bounces back with a dainty novelty tune, replete with loads of cute lyrics. It's smart stuff throughout, with Dinah aided by The Starlighters, to serve ops a hunk of top notch wax. Ork backing on the pair by maestro Harry Zimmerman is superb, and adds to the winning ways of the platter. We especially go for "So In Love." Don't hesitate with this one—get with it—but pronto!

"Rough Ridin' Willie" (2:56)

"Bless The Night" (2:58)

BOB HAYWARD with
THE ALLEN SCHRADER ORCH.
(Black & White 870)

● Wax that has the spark of a potential juke box winner in this bit done up by piper Bob Hayward, with the Allen Schrader ork. Titled, "Rough Ridin' Willie," Bob and his gal display their tonsils in smooth, finished manner, in bright, sprightly tempo, to come up with a platter that may take off and go. Lyrics whirl about the title, with a cute novelty spot adding to their top notch quality. Song is an oat-tune novelty and should have wide appeal. The flip, "Bless The Night" has Bob taking it solo as he does this romantic ballad in fine voice. Hearts and flowers lyrics spill throughout, with the Schrader ork adding to the beauty of the tune. Ops should listen in.

"You're Still The Belle Of The Ball" (2:41)

"The Lord's Been Good To Me" (2:40)

REGGIE GOFF
(London 388)

● Pair of sides by balladeer Reggie Goff and the set up of "You're Still The Belle Of The Ball" and "The Lord's Been Good To Me." Both sides are displayed in fair fashion and might suit the needs of ops with wired music locations. Top deck weaves around the title, with Reggie and The Keynotes vocalizing to their best ability. It's tender stuff, to which the moon-in-june kids can cuddle. The flip, with the vocal group tagged the Stapletones chiming in fills the bill too, and Reggie warbles the strong, meaningful lyrics in effective fashion. Ops who have the spots take note.

"Need You" (2:40)

"Hasta La Vista" (2:44)

THE HIGHWAY SERENADERS
(Highway 3459)

● Vocal spooning of the Highway Serenaders, featuring Bob Morris and Kay Karmen, is shown to effective light here as the group gather for the offering of "Need You" and "Hasta La Vista." Top deck is the one to watch. While the rendition doesn't stand up to top musical standards, the song itself is there, and might prove to be a "sleeper." Ditty flows in slow, tender mood, with some organ background music rounding out the side. The flip, with a light Latin beat in the background, is there for the asking. Both sides of this platter won't stop traffic. Ops who have the spots might take a look-see.

"I've Got My Love To Keep Me Warm" (3:10)

"I Love You So Much It Hurts" (3:06)

THE MILLS BROTHERS
(Decca 24550)

● Current pop ditty that is winning a ton of jitney is this thing offered here by The Mills Brothers. "I've Got My Love To Keep Me Warm," a grade A standard if there ever was one, gets a socko sendoff via this dinking, which is sure to add to the wide and heavy popularity of the tune. First rate harmony spills throughout the platter as the boys gather to purr the beautiful lyrics. On the other end with "I Love You So Much It Hurts," the combo once again display their very best vocal style about this tune. It's slow, tender stuff that makes for grade A listening pleasure. The many Mills Brothers' fans are sure to go for this duo.

"Beyond The Purple Hills" (2:46)

"There Goes My Heart" (2:51)

DICK BALDWIN
(Embassy 1006)

● A ditty that should step out and have music operators reaping harvest is this bit by piper Dick Baldwin. Titled, "Beyond The Purple Hills," Dick spoons the beautiful lyrics of this tune in first rate fashion to set the stage for some heavy coin play. It's slow, dreamy stuff, offered in tender western mood that satisfies. Ops will have to listen to this side to really appreciate it—and that is just what we recommend. The flip, "There Goes My Heart" only serves to point to Dick's vocal glamour all the more. It's a soft, sentimental ballad that should meet with fair approval. Ork backing on both sides by the Bob Dawes crew adds to the comedy pattern the wax weaves. Top deck for the moola!

"Down By The Station" (2:38)

"Sweet Georgia Brown" (2:32)

GUY LOMBARDO ORCH.
(Decca 24555)

● The Guy Lombardo ork serving it up, with the refrain of a pair of current hits in the offering for music operators. Top deck, "Down By The Station" is booming all over the place at present. This rendition by Guy and his boys, featuring the Lombardo Trio, makes for pleasant listening time throughout. It's typical Lombardo material, offered in slow, touching fashion, with adequate instrumental and vocal stunts to break the pattern. The flip, "Sweet Georgia Brown" has the gang out in high style, with piper Clif Grass in the vocal spotlight. Both sides of this platter should garner their fair share of juke box play. Ops who have the locations that go for this brand might take a look-see.

"Red Roses For A Blue Lady" (2:45)

"Everywhere You Go" (3:10)

GUY LOMBARDO ORCH.
(Decca 24549)

● More Guy Lombardo rhythm with the melodic refrain of "Red Roses For A Blue Lady" shining brightly. It's a platter that suits the Lombardo mood and manner like a spade flush, and one that is sure to win wide favor and attention from his many fans. Vocal work by piper Don Rodney is tops throughout, with the smooth, soft strains of the beautiful lyrics floating down in azure pure strains that make for winning wax. Coupled with "Everywhere You Go," with the Lombardo Trio at the mike once again, the platter takes on a more attractive air. It's slow stuff, revolving around the title, with the ork filling in brightly to round out the side. Top deck, "Red Roses For A Blue Lady" should hypo phono play.

Other labels slated to cut the ditty are Columbia, London and Varsity . . . ditto Jewel Music with their winning ditty "Don't Gamble With Romance," penned by Peter Tinturin . . . We learn from England that G. Charles Shaw, who for many years was with the Mechanical Copyrights Protection Society, the well known British Collection Agency, and subsequently with the Gaumont British Picture Corp., has joined Campbell, Connelly & Co., Ltd., to take up an important post in the firm's copyright division . . . Sy Stern, executive assistant to Art Talmadge, of Mercury Records, is engaged to marry Lois Carol Stitzberg of Chicago . . . Pete Kameron, Specialty Record publicity head from Hollywood, in New York to better coordinate East-West activities for Specialty, in addition to working out some national exploitation for Roy Milton, with Roy's Eastern flack chief, Milton Karle.

CHICAGO:

Even though the excitement of the coin machine convention is over and most of the music boys have settled down to their normal routine, Tower Records proved to be the exception. Dick Bradley, prexy of Tower, tells us this story. Seems as though Tower had received some sample records of Jack Fulton's and while the boys were all gathered round listenin' to Jack's "sleeper" disk, "Sunflower," someone really caught them sleepin' and managed to get into the office and walk off with one of the girl's purses. The police were called as soon as the theft was discovered and were able to recover several of the articles that were tossed from the purse as the thief made his escape. Dick wanted to show his appreciation to the boys for returning the items and offered them some records, but this proved to be the gimmick, because one of the fellows approached him by saying, "Mr. Bradley, I write songs as a hobby and would really appreciate it if you'd look 'em over and see what you can do for me." As a result Dick now has a couple of new songs on his hands and a new line claiming, "everybody writes songs—they all want to get into the act." . . . Leonard Chess of Aristocrat Records singing praises over their two new disk hits, Andrew Tibbs' waxing of "In A Traveling Mood" and Muddy Waters' "Mean Red Spider." Leonard says, "You can look for these two to hit the top, they're simply terrific." . . . Bumped into Vic Damon of Damon Records and Joe Whalen of Whalen Music having themselves a night out on the town. Both boys are really enthused about Larry McMahon's recording of "Got No Time." Bob Bodine of RCA-Victor Records tells us to be sure and give a listen to Ray Noble's Victor Waxing of "Lady In Spain." Bob reported that Boston had sold over 18,000 copies in less than three weeks, "a sure sign that it's a sure fire hit," says Bob . . . The Dinning Sisters really clicking on wax like mad lately.

LOS ANGELES:

So now we're rubbing elbows with such fine folks and celebrities as the Andrews Sisters, Peggy Lee, T-Texas Tyler, Louis Jordan and several others, and all on account of those Cash Box "Oscars" . . . The Andrews gals were swell, very obliging about the whole deal and really grateful to all the ops whose votes gave 'em the honor . . . Only hitch now is the girls say they've got to win one more—with last year's and this one it's rough figuring out how to make two do for three . . . Now setting up award routine with Peggy Lee and on Feb. 4 we're tentatively scheduled to hand over Louis Jordan's trophy at the Lincoln Theater where the world premiere of his new movie is being held, with funds going to a children's hospital . . . The Avenue is our old stamping ground and it will be a thrill to be a part of the big doins' . . . T-Texas Tyler is a'figurin' to get his "Oscar" one night soon at some P. A. hijinks out this way . . . Fine with us, long as we don't have to don spurs and saddle . . . Leo Mesner of Aladdin taking turn at New York while brother Eddie holds down the desk . . . Leo will be back in time for Feb. 8 basketball game between City College of New York and Loyola College out here . . . The Mesners are generously hosting all their friends and business contacts, including Yrs. Truly, at the event . . . Chatted with Art Rupe who, responding to our kibitz that one of these day the magazine might misspell his name, good humoredly told us that no less than the noted British psychologist Bertrand Russell once addressed him as "Art Rape" while calling the roll in a guest lecture class at UCLA some years back . . . Getting almost serious, Art announced that he's now eyeing the motion picture field as his next venture.

"While The Angelus Was Ringing" (2:56)

"Thanks To You" (2:55)

ARTIE MALVIN
(Metrotone 3017)

● One of the top renditions of this tune we've heard yet is offered here by balladeer Artie Malvin. It's that song bound to attract a ton of attention, "While The Angelus Was Ringing," and is rendered by Artie in superb vocal manner. The enchanting and inviting air this ditty flows with is matched to first rate perfection by Artie's vocal spot. The song is one that makes you stop and pay attention, and then come back for another earful. Full vocal choir chanting throughout the platter adds to the luster and brilliance of this top notch platter. Artie's vocal performance on this side is excellent, and should definitely cause loud talk in the music biz. On the flip with a light romantic ballad, Artie bounces back with another winner in "Thanks To You." Vocal work displayed here only serves to prove Artie's potent vocal charm. Vocal group on the side, purring the fond refrain of the title adds to the wax incentive all the more. Both sides bid for phono honors in strong manner, with the top side hogging the limelight. Disk definitely rates a spot in your machine!

"The Streets Of Laredo" (2:36)

"Tarra-Ta-Larra-Ta-Lar" (2:49)

DENNIS DAY
(RCA Victor 20-3323)

● Pair of sides by piper Denis Day, and some wax which music operators with the more sedate, quiet locations can use to fair advantage. Dennis' fine tenor tonsils pitch warmly throughout the pair and make for fairly pleasant moments of musical rapture. Top deck, with adequate lyrics, whirls around the title in soft, romantic setting. The flip, well known to music operators, is the beautiful lullaby currently starting to kick up a storm. Orchestral backing by the Charles Dant ork on the pair is there for the asking in effective fashion throughout. Music ops who go for this brand might do well to listen in here.

"Blue Room" (2:56)

"With A Song In My Heart" (2:50)

PERRY COMO
(RCA Victor 20-3329)

● You've gotta go a long, long way to match the set of pipes on this kid. Utilizing more depth and vocal quality than we've heard in many a moon, balladeer Perry Como really goes all out on this ditty tagged "Blue Room." It's an oldie that has lived thru the years, and is currently featured in the click MGM flicker "Words And Music." The fact that the song itself is an oldie only serves to point to Perry's prepossessing vocal charm all the more. The relaxed, sincere feeling Perry gives out with makes you stop and pay attention. Ditty flows smoothly throughout and should be well known to most ops. You've gotta hear this bit in order to appreciate

SLEEPER OF THE WEEK

"While The Angelus Was Ringing" (2:40)

"My Dream Is Yours" (2:19)

MARGARET WHITING
(Capitol 15364)

MARGARET WHITING

● Make no mistake about this one! Sure to be one of the nation's top tunes in no time at all is this ditty offered here by thrush Margaret Whiting. It's the fascinating and captivating refrain of "While The Angelus Was Ringing" that Maggie purrs, and does so in such exquisite manner as to warrant an avalanche of coin play. The song itself is one that is out of the ordinary. Lyrics are nothing short of dynamic and ring true throughout. It's an infectious type of tune, one that makes you want to listen attentively. Margaret's vocal intonation on the side is ravishing throughout. The song is one that will definitely have immense appeal, and should be greeted with wide favor across the land. Ditty has that down-to-earth touch about it, which adds to its glamour. Add to that the beautiful vocal work offered by chirp Whiting, and music ops have a platter that will take off and fly. On the flip with "My Dream Is Yours," from the Warner Brothers' picture of the same, Margaret bounces back with a slow romantic bit that bids for a fair shot on the phonos. It's smooth, tender stuff to which the young cupid set can get with. We go for the top deck, "While The Angelus Was Ringing"—we're sure you will too. Run out and load up on this one!

the full brilliance of the waxing—and that is just what we recommend. The flip, another standard has Perry offering "With A Song In My Heart" in dramatic style. The strong, meaningful intonation that Perry offers is nothing less than terrific. For sure coin in the box get with this disk!

"While The Angelus Was Ringing" (2:45)

"Comme Ci Comme Ca" (2:55)

FRANK SINATRA
(Columbia 38407)

● Frank Sinatra with a fresh set of tunes for music ops, and the fond metro of "While The Angelus Was Ringing" in the offering for music ops. It's a new type of tune, one that offers a ton of deep meaning within its lyrics. Song will definitely have wide appeal, with its sentimental strains holding all the balance. Frank's rendition of this ditty is fair enough. Strained vocal effect that the balladeer gives off detracts from the performance immensely. Nevertheless, the disk should be greeted warmly by many Sinatra fans. The flip, "Comme Ci Comme Ca," is a light dainty ditty, with the title holding the wax story in its palm. Top deck is the better one.

"Let A Smile Be Your Umbrella" (2:55)

"Sweet Sue—Just You" (3:06)

FRANKIE CARLE OCRH.
(Columbia 38388)

● The smart-fashioned patter of the Frankie Carle ork, and a pair of tunes that make for pleasant listening are headed music operators' way. Wax, titled "Let A Smile Be Your Umbrella" and "Sweet Sue—Just You" show the Carle ork in high light throughout, and should win wide favor. Top deck is an all instrumental number with an excellent band beat behind it. Light piano spot by the maestro is especially attractive and adds to the luster of the platter. The flip, with piper Gregg Lawrence at the mike, is the standard that is currently causing heavy play in many an ops machine. Rendition is favorable and should boost the popularity of the tune. Both sides should hold their own.

"Make A Miracle" (3:03)

"Frankie And Johnnie" (2:26)

MARGARET WHITING—JACK SMITH
(Capitol 15350)

● First platter teaming chirp Margaret Whiting and Jack Smith turns out to be an excellent one, with the fond refrain of "Make A Miracle" and "Frankie And Johnnie" seeping thru the wax. Top deck, from the click musical "Where's Charley," is an unusual tune. Ditty finds Maggy and Jack singing two different sets of lyrics on this clever melody. Song has nice rhythm throughout and is centered about Jack's plea, "Make A Miracle and Marry Me." On the flip, the team offer a bright tempo'd version of a long-standing favorite. Piano boogie beat in the background adds to the flavor of the disk, with the duet's vocal work hogging the limelight. We like the top deck.

"Don't Gamble With Romance" (2:37)

"I'm Beginning To Miss You" (3:03)

DORIS DAY
(Columbia 38405)

● Latest platter by chirp Doris Day, and the metro of a tune that seems fairly certain to become quite popular in the very near future. It's the top deck, "Don't Gamble With Romance," that seems to hold a whale of promise. Doris' spooning of the slow, melancholy lyrics makes for a ton of first class listening pleasure. Ditty flows in slow, romantic waltz tempo and gets an extra added sendoff via a vocal quartet in the background. It's soft stuff, the kind that the romance set can really dance to. On the flip with another romantic ballad, Doris comes back with "I'm Beginning To Miss You." Ditty is a plush one, with warm, intimate meaning flowing throughout the platter. The many Doris Day fans should go for this platter—especially so the top deck.

"You, You, You Are The One" (2:48)

"Moonlight Romance" (2:36)

THE THREE SUNS
(RCA Victor 20-3322)

● Vocal and instrumental work by The Three Suns, and the set up of "You, You, You Are The One" and "Moonlight Romance." Top deck, one that should be known to most ops, features Artie Dunn and the Sun Maids, spooning the flowing lyrics in effective manner throughout. It's light stuff, best suited for those wired music locations. On the flip with "Moonlight Romance," The Suns give out with an all instrumental bit that might meet with ops' approval. Both sides won't stop traffic—they will hold their own though. Music operators can take the lead from here.

"I'll String Along With You" (3:07)

"The Pussy Cat Song" (2:53)

JO STAFFORD—GORDON MacRAE
(Capitol 15342)

● The vocal team of Jo Stafford and Gordon MacRea, winning favor with many juke box operators, is sure to continue that mode via this dinking. On the top deck with the current plug tune from the Warner Brothers picture "My Dream Is Yours," Jo and Gordon get together to spoon the familiar lyrics to "I'll String Along With You." Ditty should be well remembered by music ops since it has been popular thru the years. This rendition should definitely be among those most widely requested. On the flip with another current rave ditty, the team do "The Pussy Cat Song" in equally brilliant manner to keep the platter hot. It's that cute novelty with the faint, quaint "n'yt n'ow" lyrics throughout. Platter shows excellent taste, especially so with a coupling like this. Ops should listen in.

"You Broke Your Promise" (2:41)

"I've Got The Sweetest Man" (2:45)

PAULA WATSON
(Supreme 1512)

PAULA WATSON

● Hot on the heels of her smash success with "A Little Bird Told Me," click chick Paula Watson steps out in fine style with this disk, to keep the chain of winning wax hotter than a ten dollar pistol. It's a platter sure to win a ton of acclaim, and add to the sensational popularity of the chirp. Titled "You Broke Your Promise," Paula offers a ton of vibrance in her vocal on this bit, with the wonderful beat and rhythm shown here adding luster and polish to an already glowing platter. Hand-clap along with the steady tempo, and a chorus repeating the title, all go toward making this bit a winner. The rhythm this tune offers is sure to attract a ton of jitney. The song makes you whistle, sing, and stomp right along with it, and then keep on doing it time and again.

The flip, "I've Got The Sweetest Man" ably goes to show Paula's wonderful versatile vocal style, with the strong, sugar-coated lyrics being rendered in tones that score. The gal's shrill pipes make for attentive listening throughout, with the instrumental backing coming thru in great fashion to round out an excellent piece of wax. The disk is a cinch to clinch with your phono fans, and one that will fill ops' jeans with a ton of silver beans. Don't miss it!

"End Of A Kiss" (2:42)

"He Knows How To Knock Me Out" (2:34)

JOE LIGGINS ORCH.
(Exclusive 79X)

● The widely popular Joe Liggins crew on deck with a pair, and the metro of "End Of A Kiss" and "He Knows How To Knock Me Out" seeping thru the wax. Top deck an instrumental piece shows as the better of the two, with some slow, drivin' rhythm by Liggins' boys making for fine listening pleasure. Shuffle tempo displayed here should sit well with the dance crowd. The flip, with a gal vocal echoes the title, with a mellow sax spot coming in to round out the side. Top deck for the moola.

"Benson's Groove" (2:38)

"Wild Wig" (2:41)

BIG JAY McNEELEY
(Savoy 682)

● Some wax by Big Jay McNeely and his Blue-Jays shows to fair advantage here, with the top deck, "Benson's Groove" leading the way. Ditty is an ode to disk jockey Al Benson, and should hold its own in the phonos. It's a moody bit, running slow throughout, with some fine piano tinkling in the foreground. Melody is haunting and lingers with you, while a slow, tender sax fills in. The flip, picks up in tempo and runs wild. "Benson's Groove" rates a spot in ops' machines.

"Hot In Harlem" (2:43)

"Nightmare Blues" (2:56)

TINY GRIMES QUINTET
(Atlantic 869)

● The Tiny Grimes Quintet in the driver's seat with some wax that should wear white in no time at all on the phonos. Top deck, an ode to The Cash Box feature "Hot In Harlem" runs thru in ultra fast tempo with Tiny on guitar and some great sax work by Red Prysock featured throughout. It's the kind of tune to which the jump fans get wild, and one they'll keep on pouring nickels to hear. The flip, tagged "Nightmare Blues" has Red Prysock doing the vocals, with the slow, moody lyrics of this blues ditty echoing the title. "Hot In Harlem" should be just that—hot! Get it—but fast!

"The Huckle-Buck" (2:47)

"Hoppin' John" (2:51)

PAUL WILLIAMS
(Savoy 683)

● Wait'll the hep jazzophile crowd of juke box fans hear this bit! Sure to garner a top spot in ops' machines is this latest offering by the Paul Williams crew. Top deck, titled "The Huckle-Buck" has Paul and his gang offering a knock out piece of wax that seems a cinch to win wide favor. Pronounced beat and rhythm displayed here, with the slow-paced haunting rhythm of his sax section in the forefront makes this bit the winner it is. The flip, "Hoppin' John" switches to some wild, wild wax, with Paul and his tenor sax blowing hard throughout. We go for the top deck—we're sure you will too.

"As Tho' You Don't Know" (2:48)

"Darktown Strutters Ball" (2:39)

DEEK WATSON and THE BROWN DOTS
(Manor 1166)

● Some great wax from Deek Watson and the Brown Dots, long missing from the phono spotlight, and the set up of "As Tho' You Don't Know," a ditty that should click like sixty for music ops. It's a slow, smart ballad, done up in the very best of vocal fashion by Deek. Wordage of the tune makes you wanna listen and should win wide favor. The flip, "Darktown Strutters Ball" has the combo in a light up temp trick, offering this standard in effective manner. It's the top deck that should catch on. For sure coin in the machines, ride with "As Tho' You Don't Know."

"I'll Always Be In Love With You" (2:31)

"Baby, I'm Tired" (2:49)

BOB MERRILL ORCH.
(Apollo 404)

● Ditty currently winning wide favor is this bit rendered here by Bob Merrill and his gang. Titled, "I'll Always Be In Love With You," Bob steps to the mike to wail the pleasing lyric in fine vocal style. Stop vocal treatment rates highly and should find heavy favor. The flip, a slow blues ditty is done up with all the riff and holler one can stand. It's stuff that should move in those blues spots. Ops should listen in—and more.

"Folk" and "Western" Record Reviews

"Put My Little Shoes Away" (2:56)

"There Ain't Gonna Be No Doggone After Awhile" (2:47)

T. TEXAS TYLER
(4 Star 1290)

T. TEXAS TYLER

● It's T. Texas Tyler in the phono spotlight once again, with a pair of sides that should wear white in juke boxes from Maine to California. Music ops are bound to remember the sensational coin-take they had with Tyler's "Deck Of Cards"—this pair bid fair to repeat. Top deck, tagged "Put My Little Shoes Away," has Tyler warbling the tender, sentimental lyrics in fond vocal style. It's the kind of tune that draws a ton of attention—and then makes you wanna listen time and again. Metro of tune song is slow, with Tyler spooning the soft wordage in tones that count, and stack up like a spade flush. Song is an infectious one that lingers with the listener, and makes you wanna sing along with it. The flip, "There Ain't Gonna Be No Doggone After Awhile" spills in moderate tempo, with Tyler's rasping vocal effort glowing brilliantly. Lyrics of the tune are first rate throughout, with a fond guitar spot coming in to round out a wonderful side. Both tunes rate heavily for juke box honors, especially so "Put My Little Shoes Away." Grab an armful and watch 'em whirl!

"Philadelphia Lawyer" (2:47)

"Sunset Trail" (2:45)

MADDOX BROTHERS & ROSE
(4 Star 1289)

● Wax definitely loaded with coin winning potential is this biscuit done up here by The Maddox Brothers and Rose. It's the top deck, tagged "Philadelphia Lawyer" that appears to be a winner. Rose's warbling on the tune, replete with smart lyrics and wonderful instrumental backing, makes for excellent listening throughout. Story in the ditty should make juke box fans come back for more than another earful. The flip, "Sunset Trail" is a slow, western plaintive ditty with the wordage echoing about the title. The disk is sure to hold its own—and more. Get with it!

"That Miss From Mississippi" (2:41)

"I'm A-Rollin'" (2:38)

ROY ROGERS
(RCA Victor 20-3313)

● Balladeer Roy Rogers in the saddle with a fresh set of tunes which ops can reap harvest with. Titled, "That Miss From Mississippi" and "I'm A-Rollin'," Roy displays his wonderful tonsils in excellent fashion to set the stage for some healthy coin play. Both sides roll in moderate tempo, with their mellow lyrics making for top notch listening pleasure. It's the kind of material Roy's many fans can easily take to. Music ops should listen in.

"Moon Over Montana" (2:50)

"Till The End Of The World" (2:35)

JIMMY WAKELY
(Capitol 15368)

● A pair of tunes music ops can bet their boots on are these offered by the widely popular Jimmy Wakely. Sure to stir up a ton of coin play is "Moon Over Montana." Wax whirls in ultra slow tempo, with Jimmy warbling the fond lyrics in exceptionally fine style. It's a different and unusual type of western ditty, with Jimmy's plaintive vocal spot shining brilliantly. The flip shows equally as well. It's a romantic range tune, ably performed by Jimmy and a vocal trio. Whistle spot on the wax hypo's the needling immensely, to add to its glamour. Platter should garner a top spot in ops' machines.

"The Black Sheep Returned To The Fold" (2:45)

"Matthew Twenty-Four" (2:55)

MOLLY O'DAY and
THE CUMBERLAND MOUNTAIN FOLKS
(Columbia 20534)

● Pair of sides in the religious vein are offered here by Molly O'Day and The Cumberland Mountain Folk, and show as wax music ops can use to fair advantage. Both sides seem especially suited to hillbilly locations, and should meet with fair reception. Top deck spins in slow tempo with Molly wailing the lyrics weaving around the title in pleasant voice. Flip has the chorus behind her with some fair instrumental backing to round out the side. Music ops who have the spots should take note.

"When My Castles Came Tumbling Down" (2:17)

"I've Lived A Lifetime For You" (2:49)

EDDIE KIRK
(Capitol 15369)

● Pair of typical cowboy lament tunes warbled in effective manner by Eddie Kirk, and the metro of "When My Castles Came Tumbling Down" and "I've Lived A Lifetime For You" are set up here for music ops to take a peek at. Both tunes whirl in medium slow tempo, with Eddie purring the melancholy lyrics in able vocal style. There's nothing too exciting about the wax. Ops who have the room in their machines can use the stuff as first rate filler material.

"Orange Blossom Special" (2:31)

"Driftwood On The River" (2:36)

JERRY & SKY
(MGM 13047)

● Some wax that music ops can use as filler material is this bit by Jerry & Sky. Titled "Orange Blossom Special" and "Driftwood On The River," the combo pitch pipes and blend with some guitar work, to offer ops an effective piece of needling. Top deck is a rapid choo-choo story, with the title holding the wax story. Guitar work on the side highlights the tune throughout. The flip parrots the title, with slow moody lyrics by the team being rendered adequately throughout. Music ops can take it from here.

Desmond Ears Latest
MGM Waxings

NEW YORK—Caught listening to his latest MGM recordings during a visit with a local juke box operator is disk star Johnny Desmond. Desmond dropped in to chat about records and the like and was treated to an earful of his winning MGM platter, "Tara Talara Tala."

"Pops" Music Handles
Latest Thornton Opus

NEW YORK—Walter Thornton, mentor of the famed pin-up girls modeling agency, has chosen "Pops" music to handle the publishing chores on his newest opus, "The Walter Thornton Rhumba."

Tune was clefted by Irving Fields, orkster and Al Gamse, lyricist. Fields and Gamse had previously collabed on "Managua Nicaragua," "Miami Beach Rhumba," etc.

"Pops" music firm is named after Paul Whiteman and is headed by Hal Halpern and Paul Kalet who have established a reputation for their work in pushing tunes and artists to the top via constant disk jock & juke box plugging along the Eastern Seaboard. Halpern was previously associated with Harry Lim in jazz concert operations and recordings. Kalet penned "Pig Latin Way" and collabed with Halpern in clefting "Lost In A Dream."

Firm has handled promotion for Phil Spitalny, The Harmonicats, Harry Babbitt, Korn Kobblers, Dinah Washington, The Ravens and such publishing firms as Warnow Music, General Music, etc.

"Pops" teed off last week with London recording of "Walter Thornton Rhumba," interpreted by Edmundo Ros.

Mercury Records Wax
"Danceable Bop"

CHICAGO—The first of a series of Afro-Cuban bebop records made under the guidance of impressario Norman Granz will be released on the Mercury label this week.

In two part and bearing the title, "No Noise," the platter features Charlie Parker, Joe "Flip" Phillips and the Machito orchestra.

"Despite the fact," claims Granz, "that many authorities on modern jazz, including Stan Kenton, have decided that bop can't be danced to, we've made some records that should disprove that once and for all. We've succeeded in making bop danceable by taking it out of the confines of 2 beat and 4/4 jazz."

The Machito band, under contract to Mercury and now on tour with Granz' "Jazz At The Philharmonic" unit, is considered to be the outstanding exponent of Afro-Cuban music not only in the United States, but in Cuba as well.

Apollo Records Change
Disk Release System

NEW YORK—Apollo Records this week changed its policy of releasing records twice monthly to a new system of releasing one record every week. Promotion, publicity and sales will be geared to the new policy effective immediately with this week's release of Blue Lu Barker's "You Gotta Show It To Me Baby."

Last batch of Apollo releases under the old policy included Illinois Jacquet's "Diggin' The Count," Paul Chapman's "Keep A Twinkle In Your Eye" and Sir Lancelot's calypsonian "Beautiful Bermuda." Next single release under the new policy will be Curley Perrin's folk renditions of "Little Rag Doll" and "My Cross-Eyed Gal."

More effective departmental coordination is expected to be gained under the new plan.

NEW YORK—Sidney Siegel, president of Seeco Records Inc., this past week announced that his firm will bow into the popular race and folk fields in the immediate future.

First release in the pop field on Seeco is "Portrait of Jennie" by Harry Babbitt. Also slated for early release are sides by Joe Thomas and Babe Mathews, in the race field.

Siegel disclosed that he will utilize the same distribution channels that he presently has for his wide catalog of international disks. New disks will be marketed at the standard list price of 79c.

Seeco Records have been one of the nation's outstanding exporters of records for some time.

STATE LEGISLATIVE BODIES EYE COIN MACHINES FOR ADDED TAXES

NEW YORK—Coinmen thruout the country are keeping a close eye on the legislative bodies in their territories. With most of the states in session at this time, and all of them seeking ways of adding revenue thru taxes, coin operated equipment is being considered a means of raising needed money.

Many bills are being introduced at these sessions, and while they have to be debated and discussed, coinmen should be aware of their existence. Among bills introduced are:

ARKANSAS: Senate Bill 26: Proposes a $25 annual State license tax on music and amusement equipment, and provides that coin operated radios shall also be subject to the tax. The bill also provides for a tax on service machines ranging from $5 per year for fewer than five machines at any location to $40 per year for more than thirty-nine machines in one location.

CALIFORNIA: Assembly Bill 814: Introduced by Assemblyman Buckhalter and referred to the Revenue and Taxation Committee on January 19. The bill provides for a $60 annual State tax on all coin operated machines in the State.

Assembly Bill 836: Introduced by Assemblyman Fletcher, and referred to the Revenue and Taxation Committee on January 19. The bill provides for a $60 annual tax on cigarette vending machines. Another bill introduced by the same assemblyman, Assembly Bill 837, was referred to the Committee on Public Morals on January 19. The bill would prohibit locating cigarette machines in public places to prevent purchase of cigarettes by juveniles.

IDAHO: House Bill 67: Introduced by the State Affairs Committee on January 17. The bill provides for repeal of Chapter 151, 1947 Sessions Laws, permitting licensing of slot machines.

MONTANA: House Bill 37: Proposed a $100 annual license fee on every automatic phonograph, was reported favorably out of Committee on January 20, but was "killed" by action of the House on January 21.

NEW YORK: Assembly and Senate bills of similar nature were introduced. These bills were to amend the "privilege" taxes permitted certain counties and cities in the State. Senate Bill 577: Introduced by Senator Mahoney, and referred to the Internal Affairs Committee on January 20. This bill proposes amendment to Section 130 of the Town Law, inserting therein a new subdivision which empowers Town Boards to regulate and control "the placing, operation, use and maintenance in public places of all amusement devices, games or coin operated machines, including music producing machines, pinball and shuffleboard games and other similar devices."

Assembly Bill 419: Provides that certain counties and cities in the State may impose "privilege taxes on coin operated amusement devices . . . including, but not limited to, coin operated juke boxes, music, skill game, digger and moving picture devices at a rate not to exceed $25 per annum for each device."

PENNSYLVANIA: Senate Bill 35: Introduced by Senator Tallman, and referred to the Committee on Law and

Baseball Clubs Set Television Programs

Cincinnati and Detroit Announce 1949 Plans

CINCINNATI, O.—The Cincinnati baseball team of the National League announced that all of their 1949 home games would be televised.

It was reported by Mort Waters, general manager of radio station WCPO that the telecasts would be over stations WCPO-TV and WLWT. However, he stated that he doubted if WCPO would have its station ready for opening game and that WLWT would televise the games alone until the other station is completed.

The description of the play will be handled by Waite Hoyt, former major leaguer, who has been broadcasting the Cincinnati ball games over radio for the past several years.

DETROIT, MICH.—The Detroit Tigers baseball team signed a contract this week, and Goebel Brewing Company will sponsor telecast of at least thirty-five home games, with the number likely to be increased.

The telecasts will be sent out on Tuesday and Thursdays "regular television days" for the Detroit Tigers, and will be seen over station WWJ-TV.

Television of baseball games for the coming season has been a major topic of discussion at all league meetings of baseball's officialdom, but no action has been taken. Each club will make its own decision at this time, with several on carry-over contracts from 1948. Minor league executives are definitely against telecasting its games, claiming it has injured its paid attendance beyond repair, and have petitioned the majors to limit the radius of its coverage to fifty miles.

EASTERN FLASHES

The usual period of relaxation prevails at this time along coinrow. Coinmen who worked hard preparing for the CMI convention, and then spent the week in Chicago working and playing, are now in most cases resting up here, or have run off for a short vacation. They know that activity usually starts within a week or so after the show. Local jobbers and distributors expect to be busy from now on in with sales of both new and used equipment, as operators start buying and trading.

Teddy (Champ) Seidel joins up with Dave Lowy & Company as general sales manager. Seidel, who is well known thruout the trade, will spend most of his time at the office, concentrating on local sales. The acquisition of Seidel gives Dave Lowy the opportunity to spend considerable time on the road... Max Levine, Scientific Marchine Corporation, Brooklyn, N. Y., testing a new machine on location. Levine did not show this machine at his booth at the CMI show, as he wishes to be absolutely sure it lives up to all promise by actual location test... Phil Mason, Mason Distributing Company, one of New York's distribs who is out of town vacationing... Lou Wolcher, Advance Automatic Sales Company, San Francisco, Calif., in town for a few days, visiting his family. From here, Wolcher heads for the sunny beaches of Miami, Fla. Lou has great faith in the future of the industry, but insists that unless certain steps are taken by all concerned, the industry cannot prosper.

Harry Berger, West Side Distributors, sorry he had to miss the Convention, the first he missed, but he had business appointments in Cuba. He returned this week looking like a million. In addition to successfully completing several deals, he had an opportunity to rest up in the sunshine. On the way back, Harry laid over for less than a day in Miami. As he had to hurry back to the office, he missed seeing the Miami coinmen, altho he phoned as many as he could... Members of the Vending Machine Service Employees Union, Local 20,650, AFL, which comprises 125 men who fill the vendors on the IRT, BMT and IND subway stations, voted to go on strike unless they win a new contract by Monday night. The State Mediation Board arranged a meeting for Monday. Meanwhile both sides agreed to keep the equipment filled during the period of dispute.

Barney (Shugy) Sugerman, Runyon Sales Company, traveling thru Connecticut for a few days with Irv (Kempy) Kempner, his road salesman. Morris Rood, manager of Runyon, tells us that he, Kempner, and Sam Bushnell of Standard Factors, drove back from the show in 21 hours—which is good time how you look at it... Larry Frankel, Rock Island, Ill., distributor, visiting in the city for the week... Max Levine and a committee of 18 operators met on Monday, January 24, with John M. Connella, New York City's Commissioner of Licenses, in an effort to work out local operating problems. During the several hours of conversation, Commissioner Cannella showed a great spirit of cooperation, but nothing definite resulted, with all matters being taken under advisement.

Dave Stern and Tom Burke, Seacoast Distributors, Newark, N. J., back on the job. Dave tells us that he accomplished some major deals, and will soon release the information... Bob Bleekman, well known music machine coinman, visiting the big city... Al Blendow and Al Meyers, Blendow & Meyers, Inc., returned from the show, well satisfied with their efforts at their booth. Blendow in particular pleased with the reaction on the Mercury Athletic Scale... Ben Rodins, Marlin Amusement Corporation, Washington, D. C., still vacationing in Miami. He's expected back at the office any day now... Mike Munves, back on the job, happy he took a vacation before the show. Now he's busy getting set for the spring business he lined up... Many New York coinmen expected that Willie Blatt would stop off here on the way back to Miami, but evidently one week of Chicago's cold weather was enough for Willie, and he headed right back to "sunny" Florida.

The State of Pennsylvania recently imposed a tax on taverns showing television, and Philadelphia followed up on January 1, imposed its own tax. A bill has now been introduced in the State legislative body (Senate Bill 35) by Senator Tallman, and has been referred to the Committee on Law and Order on January 17. The bill exempts television exhibitions from the liquor license regulations, which prohibit liquor licensees from conducting theatrical or floor shows or exhibiting moving pictures, including coin operated movies.

Voted back for another year on MOA were Al Denver as vice chairman and Sidney H. Levine as national counsellor, both of the Automatic Music Operators Association of New York. George A. Miller, who headed the group, will be the chairman once again. Other directors and officers from this territory elected were: Dick Steinberg of the Music Guild of America, Newark, N. "Frisky" Is New Bally Five-Ball

GEORGE JENKINS

CHICAGO — Bally Manufacturing Company, this city, introduced its new five-ball game this week, called "Frisky."

"The new five-ball stresses fast action and the use of combination plays and player-controlled action," stated George Jenkins, vice president and general sales manager. "'Frisky' features kicker bumpers, magnetic roll-over buttons, bonus build-up, a changing value kick-out pocket, and a pair of kick-out pockets near the out-hold which gives players extra chances to run up a high score."

THRU THE COIN CHUTE

CHICAGO CHATTER

The Windy City seemed rather dead this last week with all the hustle bustle of the CMI show over. The factories were experiencing the usual relaxing period that comes after the convention. Almost all the boys are of the opinion that the show was a success. The majority now have an optimistic outlook regarding future business for all in the industry . . . Over at Bally Mfg. Co. Captain Tom Callaghan is receiving congrats for being selected as Governor Adlai Stevenson's choice for Director of Public Safety for the State of Illinois. However, "Dapper Tom" turned down the position in favor of remaining with his long-time friend Ray Moloney, prexy of Bally . . . As a result of the show the boys at Bally are now comparing the corridors of the plant with those of Grand Central Station. During convention week coinmen were flocking there to get a look at the factory which has given operators one of the greatest one-ball games of all time in "Citation."

Visitors included: Clarence Camp, Southern Amusement Co., Memphis; Joe Abraham, Lake City Amusement Co., Cleveland; R. F. Jones of San Francisco and Salt Lake City; Lou Dunis, Portland Amusement, Portland, Ore.; Lou London, Philadelphia; Ed Heath, Heath Distrib. Co., Macon, Ga.; Sam Taran, Miami Beach; Eddie Corrison, Palisades Specialties Co., Cliffside Park, N. J.; T. Styers, Winston-Salem, N. C.; J. Bosch & party from New Orleans Pinball Operators Association; B. D. & J. D. Lazar, Pittsburgh; the Downie Bros., Windsor, Ont.; Ben MacDonald, Fort Worth, Tex.; George Wrenn, Walbox Sales Co., Dallas, with Mr. & Mrs. Wm. Keel; Mrs. Jack R. Moore, Los Angeles; Lou Cate, Union Vending, Baltimore; Duke Luker, Christopher-Luker Co., Miami; Finley Duncan, Valparaiso, Fla.; T. Walker, Southland Novelty Co., Columbus, Tenn.; Gus Valem, Amsterdam, Holland; and George Alcorn of Miami.

Spoke with Ed Vojack of O. D. Jennings & Co. who informs us that Jennings' open house (held during the show) was a huge success with more coinmen attending their display at the plant than in any other previous years. Ed tells us that Jennings' new "Sun Chief" made such a hit that distributors are now planning to hold individual showings. The first to be at Jack Rosenfeld Co. in St. Louis on Jan. 29 & 30th, with others to follow thruout the country . . . H. F. (Denny) Dennison continues to be a very busy guy, setting up his new Chi office which is scheduled to open the first part of this month. His Chicago headquarters will concentrate on sales and promotional work. "And if the marvelous reception we received at the convention is any indication, then we should do okay," says Denny.

We hear from Joe Caldron that AMI has appointed Western Distributors, Inc., in Portland, Ore., and Seattle, Wash., as their new distribs for Washington, Oregon, Northern Idaho, and Western Montana. The Portland firm is headed by Budge Wright with George Trambetas in charge of the Seattle office . . . Joe reports that the two trailers AMI now has on the road are doing a splendid job, receiving a very enthusiastic reception from ops and distribs, and are going to continue their swing around the country . . . Had a nice visit with Harold Klein of Milwaukee who is once again taking an active part in the coinbiz. Harold was all hepped up over the wonderful reception his firm, Shuffleback Co., received at the convention. He stated that their shuffleboard was attracting much attention from distributors.

Called over at Illinois Simplex and found Gordon Sutton sticking close to the home front, trying to wind up a few loose ends that were left from the coinshow. Gordon was all smiles over the way things were moving along and predicted this year would be a good one for the coin machine business . . . Dropped around to United Mfg. Co. where Billy DeSelm was busy taking roll call to see that everyone made it back from the convention. Billy and the rest of the boys appeared to be pretty well bushed after all the recent excitement but claimed it was a good show, a good time, and well worth it . . . Plenty of talk over at Chicago Coin about the crowds of coinmen that made their way to Chicoin's booth . . . Al Stern and Wally Fink are a couple of happy guys over the results of their showing at the convention. The boys recently redecorated their showrooms, offices, and shop, and had a very good opportunity to show these to the many visitors that flocked to World Wide Distributors . . . Talked with Fred Mann who claims he still hasn't been able to catch his breath as a result of the terrific crowds that visited the Morrison Hotel to see the new Trans-Vue equipment. "The showing was a tremendous success, receiving acclaim from one and all," says Fred.

Over at Rock-Ola Mfg. Corp. Art Weinand settled down to work again, answering phone calls from coinmen he had said "Goodbye" to the day before. According to Art, everyone calls to tell him "It's good to get home and relax, but," says Art, "now I have to really get back on the job" . . . Williams Mfg. Co. getting lots of nice orders on their new five-ball "Tucson." And prexy Harry Williams still receiving congrats from all over the country on his appointment as President of CMI . . . Joe Beck tells us what a terrific kick he gets out of watching coinmen play his new Telequiz machine. "It's a game that makes a hit with everybody," says Joe . . . Bumped into Hugh McGarrity, president of the Simplex Export Co., who is as busy as the proverbial bee rearing his new loop headquarters . . . Spoke with Monte West, who recently resigned his position with AMI. Monte stated that his plans were uncertain at the present time but said he expected to continue on in the coin machine field.

The boys over at Genco Mfg. Co. plenty thrilled over the way their new game "Floating Power," which was one of the hits of the show, went away over the top in sales . . . Caught Joe Klein of Atlas Novelty hustlin' thru the loop to do a few quick errands, then back to the job again. "And," says Joe, "from the looks of all the orders there'll be plenty to do" . . . Bill Perry, well known adman, nursing a cold as a result of too much rushin' round during the week of the show. "Had to see a lot of people and had very little time to do it in, so now I'll suffer," says Bill.

THRU THE COIN CHUTE

CALIFORNIA CLIPPINGS

Something's finally come along to freeze the weather off the L. A. front pages . . . It's the Pyramid Clubs, a sort of chain-letter society which had folks kicking in from four-bits to $100 in a kitty which paid off to some lucky stiff when a certain membership had been reached . . . The local authorities decided it wasn't kosher and clamped down on the operation . . . The get-rich-quickers countered with a suit against the city and the public cry that "big business and the race-track interests were conspiring to keep the little guy from having a little fun and winning some dough" . . . Outside of being a good yarn, its reason for mention here is that it proves that, with or without skill and amusement games, people will find something to try their luck on—and that many of them don't believe the race track syndicates should have a monopoly on the action . . . Reports from the CMI Convention filtered in a little slow out this way, with many of the boys who went back to Chicago laying over for a week or continuing on to New York on business and fun—or maybe to get away from the "unusual" California weather . . . At this moment the sun is shining here and the sky is clear but we're not laying any odds on what happens an hour hence.

Understand that two standout displays at the big show were the Royal Shuffleboard and Solotone's new three-way combo . . . Ray Powers, one who came back quick, reports that his Superior 8-ft. rebound was another hit, also the Superior scoring unit . . . Ray says he and factory rep Harold Tureen came back with plenty of orders—and not just the good fellow kind either, but bona-fide with deposit . . . As for Sicking Distribs' Jack Simon, all he brought back from Chi was a cold. Lyn Brown late in getting back and we're interested to hear what he'll have to announce when he returns . . . Same goes for Aubrey Stemler, who also laid over a few days in Windy City . . . Joe Peskin stayed at his home base after show, his local secy. Phyllis Hammond tells us and adds, "No news from either end."

Salesman Ed Wilkes at Paul Laymon's had an interesting observation on the Convention: "We figure that the show should boom local business." . . . Mary Sims back at her Western Shuffleboard desk after visiting family in San Francisco and reports that dept. stores and other retail outlets really starting to show interest in the Western Cub board for home play . . . Georgie Warner, his usually buoyant spirits somewhat damped by the weather, says, "Something has to happen before we can say things are good." . . . At General Music Fred Gaunt busy with a cash customer and Bud Parr in conference, so we'll catch 'em next trip . . . Charlie Fulcher of Mills comes up with a news item: He's now got the "Telequiz" question and answer I. Q. game—"and strictly legal," quips Charlie . . . Unusual for Mills Co. to be handling a product without the Mills label on it . . . In on the Row: Charles Fisher from Inglewood . . . Gene Anderson of Oceanside . . . Santa Maria's Al Cicero . . . Ken Ferrier from Oxnard . . . Perry Irwin of Ventura . . . Morro Bay's Frank Walnum . . . Ivan Wilcox from Visalia.

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL, MINN.

Things were rather quiet in the Twin Cities last week during Show time. Distributors in the Twin Cities were very surprised as one of the largest turnouts in the North West was in Chicago at the Coin Machine Show.

Fred Fixel, president of the North Dakota State Operators' Association, was in Chicago with several delegates from North Dakota . . . Mike Imig, president of the South Dakota State Operators' Association, was at the Show with many South Dakota operators . . . Minnesota operators at the Coin Machine Show were Gus Loehr, Melrose, Minnesota; Kelly Diedrich, Chaska, Minnesota; Walt Fisher, Pipestone, Minnesota; Stan Woznak, Little Falls, Minnesota; Walt Thorne, Staples, Minnesota; and Bill Hanf of Austin, Minnesota . . . HOW TO USE THE "C. M. I. BLUE BOOK"

FOREWORD: Many times, wide differences appear in the high and low prices of certain equipment. Like any true reporter The C.M.I. Blue Book can only feature the market prices as they are quoted. The C.M.I. Blue Book acts exactly the same as the market quotation board at the Stock Exchange—posting the prices as they are quoted for the past week, regardless of how much they may seem to be out of line. Some prices do not change for months. The C.M.I. Blue Book, rather than show no price, retains the last known quotations for such equipment so that the subscriber at least has the last known prices as a basis to work with. Prices continue to be very widely divergent these days. Someone on the West Coast may feel a certain machine worth $150.00 whereas someone on the East Coast may think it worth but $75.00. Of course, condition, serial, appearance, demand, territory, quantity, etc., must all be taken into consideration. The C.M.I. Blue Book reports each quotation exactly as it is made and depends on the subscriber to make average price adjustments to fit the peculiarities of his territory.

METHOD: The C.M.I. Blue Book should be read as follows: First price listed is lowest price for the week: Second price listed is highest price. Where only one price appears this should be considered lowest price.

EARNING $1

WRITE FOR CONFIDENTIAL reports on sensational earnings of CITATION and LEXINGTON... in many spots NEARLY DOUBLE the average previous one-ball records. The new MYSTERY "MULTIPLE" and GUARANTEED ODDS are sweeping the country like wild-fire. Odds "multiply" on mystery basis... AND NEVER DROP BACK TO A LOWER BRACKET... always either advance or remain as high as on previous coin. Without fear of losing favorable odds, players play 10 or 12 coins per game for additional selections. The result is the fastest play in one-ball history. Get your share.
